

To Whom It May Concern:

It is imperative that you do not repeal the laws that restrict one company from owning both a TV and radio station in the same town. Such laws are necessary to ensure free press.